Commentary

Raiz Invest CEO George Lucas says: “During 2019, we further strengthened our position in the Australian market and established a footprint in Indonesia and Malaysia. Indonesia and Malaysia are the first two target markets in Southeast Asia.

“Pleasingly, there has been growth in active customers every month since the fee increase that was introduced on 1st August 2019.

“In the past 12 months, FUM has grown by 70% to $438 million and based on current growth projections, is expected to exceed $500 million in the first half of 2020, markets willing” he said.

Following the changes to ASX Listing rules relating to quarterly business updates, the company has decided to move from monthly to quarterly reporting for active customer numbers and Funds Under Management (FUM), with the next quarterly update due in January 2020.
